Have a N.I.C.E. Day or just NICE for short is a racing game where you can start a career as a racing driver similar to NFSU and pace around with different tuned cars. Small but not so subtle difference: In this game you'll also find such nice accessories as machine guns, mines, or tire slashers. Once a players car has reached 100% of its damage capacity, the race is over for that player.

Installation

I haven't found a patch or crack yet, so you have to play the game from CD. Installation works well with the original installer under Windows 10. Just install it fully (175 MB or „Installation for a friend“.

Problems

Do not ALT + TAB out of the game! The game cannot be accessed afterwards. It still runs (you can hear the music playing) but you cannot reopen it. The only way to proceed is to stop the game's process.

Multiplayer

Multiplayer works under Windows 10 with DirectPlay. Host’s IP is required to know for the clients.
