

Armada 1 Klingon Construction Ship

The Klingon Construction Ship type ship of the game Star Trek Armada is the Klingons construction ship. It is build by the Starbase. As such it has pretty much the same stats as any other constructor, aside from the traits given by its crew's faction. The Tractor Beam can be used to tow damaged or vacated ships. All buildings of the Klingons are built with the Construction Ship. This ship is sturdy but unarmed, making it an easy target, if not escorted or covered by any defense.
