

Armada 1 Shockwave Station

The Shockwave Station exclusively produces the Jach'eng class. Whenever you see this yard, you can be sure your opponent plans on blowing massive strikes. This makes this yard a prime target. On the other hand the cost of these ships is equally impressive as their fire power and they take quite some time to finish. Don't give your opponent the chance to deploy such a ship. It's best to destroy the constructor while it is building the yard, or at least the yard before it finishes the first Jach'eng.
